DAVIS THEATRE ..

Complete Change of Program by Homan's Musical Revue Today and

Of all the popular priced shows that ever played this city, the Homan Mus-ical Revue now at the Davis theatre completing two solid weeks, is without a doubt the finest aggregation that ever played the city and every member of the company have established a reputation that will be hard to beat. Today the company will present an entirely new program which promises to be the best they have ever done here, the show will open with a screaming funny sketch called Behind the Lights, in which Miss Farrington and Mr. Ellwood will display their abilities, this will be followed by a big singing and dancing revue with everything entirely different from anyever played the city and every memeverything entirely different from anything ever seen here, Mr. Jewett and Miss Pendleton will be seen in new Mr. Morrison in new rag time songs, dances, Mr. Boudray in new bass so-los, Mr. O'Connell in new ballads and every member of the company will have something new for today's bill, and special settings will be used, many big assembly numbers with many big assembly numbers with pretty electrical effects will be a feature of the show for today and to-morrow. The photoplays are also changed and will include The Awakening of Luke McVan, a great two reel K. B. drama, the Keystone comedy is called Droppington's Devilish Deed with Chester Conklyn, that fun-Matinee at 2:30, all seats 10 cents, children 5 cents, evening 10, 15, and 20c. Owing to the big demand for seats there will be two complete shows on Saturday evening at 6:45 and 8:30. Come early is you want to be sure of getting a seat Discount of the control getting a seat. Bigger and better than all others.

LECTURE ON TWILIGHT SLEEP. Davis Theatre, Monday, at 10.30 a. m For Women Only.

The first record of painless birth found in the Bible where it says that Adam fell into a dreamless sleep in the Garden of Eden, and during which one of his ribs were removed, which one of his ribs were removed, and on awakening he found Eve standing by his side. Ever since that time the various tribes of birth have attempted to produce painless birth. In India the natives burned charcoal in a braziore, the fumes of which stupify the patient. In Africa the natives are given alcoholic drinks until they reach a stage of intoxication where they are insensible to pain, but it remained for Drs. Koenig and Gauss of the Frauenklinik, Freiburg, Germany. to discover the Twilight Sleep treatment of Dammerschiaf as it is correctly called in Germany which produces painless birth without injury to mother or child. Dr. Kurt E. Schlossingk, who for four years was their assistant and who is the first of their staff to visit the United States and hold clinies to teach the technique, is coming to Davis theatre, on Monday, May 10th, where he will deliver a lecture, illustrated with motion pictures at 10.30 a. m. Dr. Schlossingk is giving these lectures for women only-and will answer from the stage immediately after his lecture any only and will answer from the stage immediately after his lecture any immediately after his lecture any question which the audience may pro-This is the first time that these pictures have been shown here and they have only publicly been shown in Washington, New York and Chicago. Seats on sale today, prices 75, 50 and 25 cents.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

"The Shanghaied Baby," Three Reels, Featuring Ormi Hawley.

This superb Lubin feature for today in three reels, tells of a young married couple whose indifference for each other and the little baby, causes a friend to abduct the child believing that the loss of the child would serve to bring the parents to their senses. A notorious character hears of the affair, and hoping to receive a ransom, steals the child from the friend of the family, and from there the baby is taken to a Chinese joint where it is kept in hiding. A sea captain rescues the little one and adopts it, taking it to his home in the tropics. Later, the lad grown to manhood, and his foster faither dead, starts for the land of his high lath. Harmstor, and hoping to receive a fair and hoping to receive a ransom. the little one and adopts it, taking it to his home in the tropics. Later, the lad grown to manhood, and his foster father dead, starts for the land of his birth. He meets and wooes a wealthy girl at the home of the friend of the girl. While there, the woman is moved to sing the and the melody awakes a memory in the lad's heart for it is the song his mother sang him to sleep with, and the woman proves to be his mother. A genuine love feast follows and all ends happilly. Edgar Jones, Kempton Greene, pily. Edgar Jones, Kempton Greene, Louise Huff, Earl Metcalf and many others appear in this splendid three reel offering. Other films today are "Young Man who Figgered," with Bil-ly Quirk, and "In the Plumber's Grip," Edison comedy. Tomorrow is Alice Joyce in the three reel feature of oriental magnificence entitled "The PHILHARMONIC CONCERT. Soloist and Concert Numbers Will Make Fine Programme.

The concert by the Philharmonic society in Slater Memorial next Tuesday evening should draw a full house not only for the pleasure to be derived from a well chosen programme, but to encourage and help build up a per-manent organization that is capable of doing so much good in the musical life of this city.

In February, 1912, E. E. Baker, the conductor and teacher of the orchestra. gathered a few of the young players together for the purpose of studying the best of musical compositions. The first concert was given in the Colonial theatre May 19th, 1912. Two concerts followed in 1913, and two more in 1914. the increasing efficiency of the orches-tra keeping pace with the ever-in-creasing pretentiousness of the pro-

The orchestra up to this season has been known as the Young People's Symphony, but it was thought that the players had advanced far enough in musical ability and interpretation to merit a more dignified title, so they were organized into a self governing body, taking the name of the Norwich

Philharmonic society.

The weekly rehearsals of the society form a school of incalculable value to the players, as they are studying the best compositions of the greatest mas-ters, under the competent and efficient direction of a leader who has spent 12 the public is sure of a treat next years in symphony work under some of our foremost conductors.

The concert next Tuesday should reDavis.

Address is blood upon each dottage door.

Ablaze, the ancient cities crumble down,
Or left intact are looted by the foe,
And prone beneath the tribute taker's frown,
In silent pain must suffer nameless woe.

But these are only incidents of war—
The awful price that Glory has to pay.

And yet, Ambition, goaded madly on By love of power and a sounding name.
Recks not the countless millions spen and gore.
